Partners for Excellence

Join us as a Partner for Excellence and stand proudly with our mission on an annual basis. WIFS recognizes our Partners as simply that: allies in the commitment to promote diversity and inclusion. Be seen as a thought leader who demonstrates support for women and inclusion through WIFS communications, professional development, conference programming, education, brand visibility, industry collaboration and attraction. Our Partners for Excellence share visibility and branding across all of WIFS marketing and communications, and are represented during all WIFS events. WIFS offers varying levels of partnership or will customize an annual package to best align with your organization's strategic goals.

Costs:

- Leadership: $55,000
- Executive: $40,000
- Ambassador: $30,000
- Director: $20,000

SupportHER/Affiliate Membership (non- industry partners)

WIFS adds value to your corporate commitment to women—and bottom line—by recognizing you with a SupportHER designation as a woman-friendly company. Companies that are part of SupportHER share a common commitment and goal to be public about their dedication to the attraction, development, and advancement of women. Add your name to those working together to advance the objectives.

Cost:

- $7,500

Webinar Series

WIFS offers robust educational and thought leadership programming via live webinars, videos, and on-demand sessions throughout the year, in addition to reinstating our annual live conference in 2021.

Costs:

- $5,000 - Three Webinars
- $1,000 - Single Webinar

Tuesdays at Two

Free, live webinars throughout the year, providing valuable educational information on timely, interdisciplinary topics. Expert speakers deliver knowledge on a variety of cutting-edge topics, and answer questions submitted by live viewers.

WIFS Annual Conference

WIFS leaders take great care to deliver exceptional and timely content at the WIFS Annual Conference. Filled with education and engagement, WIFS will provide a highly interactive, visually rich learning environment for all attendees. Exhibitors will have the opportunity to showcase their products and services to an audience of insurance and financial services professionals in the Exhibit Hall.

- The 2021 WIFS Conference will be held in-person in Indianapolis, IN October 10–13. Sponsorship opportunities for Conference will be available at wifsnational.org in May 2021.
